PRIVATE DANIEL ROPER

Daniel Roper was a private in His Majesty's First Company of King's Rangers which was stationed at Charlotte Town for the protection of the Island of Saint John during the latter part of the American Rebellion. The officers and men of this Company had been enlisted in the Jerseys, New York, and adjacent areas. It is believed that Daniel Roper probably came from one of these provinces. When Daniel died in 1811 he and his wife, Susannah, had five sons and three daughters.

As a disbanded soldier in 1784 he received a land grant of one hundred acres in Lot 47. He did not take up this grant however, and instead settled in Lot 34, near Covehead. In 1792 he purchased Town Lot 100 in Charlotte Town at a sheriff's sale and in 1796 sold it to John Carrol for eleven pounds and ten shillings. On September 14, 1802 Daniel was granted Pasture Lot 295 in Charlotte Town and Lot #48 in #500 in Charlottetown Royalty where he lived until his death in 1811. On December 1, 1835, Daniel's children signed over their claim to Lot 295 to their brother, Henry. In return he had to take care of Susannah for the rest of her life and she lived until 1838. Following are their children:

I Daniel Roper

Daniel, junior, was born before 1792 and married Sophia Sylvis from Murray Harbour in 1813 at Saint Paul's Church in Charlottetown. On August 24, 1818 Daniel was listed as a ship's carpenter. He was granted a Lot in Charlottetown and a pasture lot in Charlottetown Royalty. They moved to St. Peter's Bay where Daniel eventually acquired one hundred and eighty-five acres of land and a grist mill. They had several children:

A. Sophia was born in 1814. In 1838 she married John Hapleton.
B. Thomas was born in 1827. On March 16, 1852 he married Elizabeth Westacott, daughter of Samuel Westacott. They had one daughter, Marion Margaret, born on December 4, 1852. Thomas operated a mill at St. Peters, Lot 39 and on January 1, 1857 he sold this property to T. DesBrisay, and moved to Iowa where he died of a fever on June 22, 1863 at Baton Rouge. He left a widow and one daughter.
C. Daniel III was born c. 1832. On March 27, 1857 he married his cousin, Margaret Maria Roper, a daughter of John G. Roper of East Royalty. By the census of 1861 they had two children under five years of age. Daniel gave his occupation as carpenter and farmer in the 1881 census when he lived at Charlottetown Royalty.

II Sara Roper (c. 1792-1882)

Sara was the second child of Daniel and Susannah, and she was born c. 1792. It is said that she married a John Jury or John Hurry on May 19, 1813 and that she was married again on August 4, 1816 to John Dixon. Sarah and John lived on the Malpeque Road near Winsloe. She died on March 20, 1882 at the age of ninety. Her headstone in Highfield Presbyterian Cemetery stated that she was the "Relict of the late John Dixon". They had three children:

A. Alexander was born on May 29, 1817.
B. George.
C. John.

Their descendants are the Dixons of Clyde River who specialize in the Aberdeen Angus cattle.

III Mary Roper

Mary it is thought, was born c. 1794. She later moved to the Rustico area.

IV John George Roper (c. 1796-1875)

John George was the fourth child of Daniel Roper I and he was born c. 1796. In 1818 he married Margaret Crammer, who was born in 1797 to John P. Crammer, a Loyalist. John was a successful farmer and acquired a great deal of land at Roper's Hill, East Royalty, and today Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Roper are still living in John's house. The deaths of Margaret and John were only five days apart, she died on May 5, 1875 and he on May 10, 1875. They are said to have had four sons and three daughters and their names may be:

A. William — no information available at this time.
B. Thomas — no information available at this time.
C. John Peter was born c. 1821. He married Mary Crawford Kelly on May 17, 1864. Mary was born in 1845. They lived on the original farm at East Royalty. They had seven daughters and two sons.
D. Charles was born in 1826 and died on May 7, 1889. On August 24, 1848 he married Jane Douglas, who died on May 12, 1902. Charles was a blacksmith at North River. He built a house in Cornwall which is still in excellent condition and is located across the road from the Bonnie Brae Restaurant. Charles and Jane sold their Cornwall home and moved to Moncton in 1883 and later in the same year to Victoria, British Columbia. They had four sons and two daughters.
E. Elizabeth.
F. Sara Elizabeth married George Deacon of New York in 1867.
G. Margaret Maria was born in 1830 and married her cousin, David Roper III, of St. Peter's Mills in 1857.

V James Roper (1802-1874)

James was born in 1802 and on August 16, 1830 married Catherine MacEachern, a widow, but she died soon after. On May 8, 1834 he married an English girl, Johanna Harvey, who was born in 1807. They had a number of children. In 1828 James purchased one hundred acres of land on Lot 33 from John Collings and in 1864 he sold half of it to his son, Daniel.

During the winter farmers used to travel across the ice as a more direct route to destinations, and James used to come out at Wright's Mills. On February 8, 1874 he became confused and lost in a snowstorm and was found later frozen to death at the age of forty-seven. His widow died on March 8, 1894. Some of James and Johanna's children probably were:

daughters. Benjamin leased one hundred acres of land on Lot 33 from J.H. Winsloe on May 1, 1832 and he eventually bought it. Benjamin died in the 1850's without a will. All of his children except one signed their share over to their mother and that child eventually signed. In the end the property was divided and half sold, while the other half remained with the son, James. The children were:

A. William, a carpenter, married Matilda Ferguson of Summerside in 1863, and they had six children. Matilda died, and William moved to Halifax where he married Ada Hubley in 1877 and had eleven more children, making seventeen in all. His final move was to Massachusetts in 1881.

B. James MacDonald was born in 1837 and died in 1926. He married Catherine E. MacCallum (1852-1934) and acquired a farm at Union Road from his brother, Charles. James had seven children.

C. Margaret Elizabeth married Thomas Robertson in 1866. They had four children and moved to the United States.

D. Charles married Mary Panton in 1877. She died leaving two small children and was buried in Belfast. Charles gave up his farm on the Union Road and moved to the United States where he became a carpenter. He married again and had four more children. He was killed in a building accident.

E. Daniel was born on September 23, 1832. He married Margaret Robertson. They farmed in the Royalty and had a family of three daughters.

F. Benjamin Thomas was born on September 13, 1835. He married Annie Euphemia MacKinnon of Lot 49 in 1874. They had no children so they adopted his brother Charles' first two children. Benjamin was a carpenter.

G. Sara Ann was born c. 1854. She did not marry. She was a seamstress and had her own dressmaking establishment in Charlottetown. She was living with her mother in Charlottetown. She was living with her mother in Charlottetown Royalty in the census in 1881.

H. John was born on May 19, 1830.

VII Ann Roper (c. 1809-?)
Ann was the seventh child of Daniel and Susannah and she married William Kindall of Lot 33 in 1831. No further information available at this time.

VIII Henry Edward Roper (1811-1901)
Henry Edward was the last child in the family and was born after his father's death. He did not marry and died in 1901. He was buried in Highfield Presbyterian Cemetery.

Submitted by Arnold Roper; Margaret Roper (Mrs. L.W.).

PRIVATE PETER ROSE

PETER ROSE, a private in His Majesty's First Battalion of Kings Rangers, came in the spring of 1782 with his battalion and served on the Island of Saint John until the battalion was disbanded in the fall of 1783.

Family tradition claims Dorsetshire, England, as Peter's birthplace, and that as an adventurous lad he ran away to sea. It appears that he joined the army because it is recorded that Peter Rose embarked at Boston with the British Army for Halifax in 1776. He became the body servant of Captain Edward Mainwaring, one of the commanding officers of the First Battalion of Kings Rangers.

In 1784 Peter Rose and Captain Mainwaring were given grants patent in Lot 47. The captain drew seven hundred acres at North Lake. Peter, being a private, was entitled to one hundred acres.

On Friday, the 18th day of June, 1784, in the Council Chambers, a letter addressed to his Excellency, the Governor, was read from Captain Edward Mainwaring of the late First Battalion of King's Rangers. He requested on behalf of himself, the Officers, Non-Commissioned Officers and Privates who had taken their lands on Lot 47 that they should be supplied with a boat to convey their provisions to that part of Lot 47, and "their proportions of Tools, Nails and Implements," etc., etc.

The Captain with his housekeeper, Martha Potts, and Peter Rose sailed to Surveyor's Inlet in the East Parish of King's County to claim their grants, build a house, and clear some land. It is told that some time later Captain Mainwaring decided to return to England but he did not want to take his housekeeper. He proposed that if Peter would marry Martha Potts the whole grant would be transferred to him. Peter agreed, and in 1796 he was given possession of the land at North Lake.

Peter's will dated June 29, 1812 was proved on November 30, 1812. In it he left his property to his wife, Martha. At her decease it was to go to his brother, Sampson Rose (Reel 1-2377 Public Archives). Peter had written to England inviting his younger brother to join him, and Sampson Rose and his wife, Elizabeth Baker, came out to North Lake in 1804.

In 1798 census records twelve families living on Lot 47. Peter Rose was the head of a household of two; one male between sixteen and sixty, which would be Peter, and one female between sixteen and sixty, Martha. They had no children but Sampson and Elizabeth had twelve children. Their descendants and spouses number in the thousands and are scattered all over North America.

Peter's death was caused by a kick from a horse. His widow married William Anderson who was probably from the Savage Harbour area. Anderson was drowned at North Lake in 1820.

The first Rose Reunion to be held on a grand scale with six hundred registering was held at the Eastern King's Community Centre, Saturday, August 8, 1981 and on Sunday afternoon a memorial monument was unveiled in the Kingsboro Cemetery.

William, was born about 1743 in New Rochelle, New York, the son of Jacob and Jane Parcot Schureman, and died on September 15, 1819 in Wilmot Valley. It has been established that his grandfather was Jacob Schureman, and it is very probable that Frederick Schureman was his great-grandfather and Harmen Schuerman was his great-great-grandfather. Indications also favor a Dutch rather than a German background.

Harmen Schureman first appears in the Dutch colony of New Amsterdam, now called New York, in 1649. He later moved to New Rochelle, a Huguenot town. There have been numerous Schurman families that have settled in Canada and the States as early as the 1860's and as late as the 1950's, but do not descend from Harmen Schuerman.

There are many spellings of the Schurman name: Schurman, as early as 1739 and Schureman, as early as 1714. In New Rochelle, William used the spelling Schureman, but in the Island of Saint John the "e" was dropped. Harmen, years earlier, used yet another spelling, Schuerman.

William grew up in a home where both French and English were spoken. These languages, as well as the Dutch influence, produced a marked accent, even in later years, resulting in his inability to pronounce the English "th" sound.

In 1768, he married Jane Bonnet, a daughter of John and Mary Guion Bonnet, another Huguenot family. Two of William's sisters, Jane and Esther, married two of Jane Bonnet's brothers, John, junior, and Daniel, respectively.

William and Jane had four children — Peter, Mary, Isaac and Jacob, all born in New Rochelle. With the birth of Jacob, in 1777, Jane died. In 1778, William married Elizabeth Hyatt, (c. 1753-1843) whose parents are unknown. Elizabeth as born c. 1753 and died in Bedeque on February 17, 1843, at age 90. They had seven children — Benjamin and Caleb born in New Rochelle, and Jane, Sarah, William, Elizabeth and John born on Prince Edward Island.

Indications are that William was prosperous. In 1767, at age 24, he was fourteen of one hundred and four on the assessment list.

During the turmoil of war in their country, William remained a Loyalist. At the close of the war in 1782, with his legal rights denied, William, his second wife, Elizabeth, and children, Peter, Isaac, Jacob, Benjamin and Caleb, as well as two slaves, "Bill" and "Sook", left the United States for Shelburne, Nova Scotia. Their daughter, Mary, remained behind with relatives.

William owned a small ship. It was used to take the family to Shelburne, which was just a stopping point on their way to Tryon, Island of Saint John, where they spent their first winter. In the spring William "arranged to settle on a tract (of land) at the head of the estuary of the Dunk River, in what is now Central Bedeque... the agent on behalf of the proprietor agreed to sell William 350 acres of the land for £50, to be paid in ten years.

William returned to his new property and with the help of Bill and thirteen-year old Peter built a log house down by the river and thatched it with seaweed... There was a trail through the woods, but the main means of travel was the river and bay. (Schurman history, page 24).

William and fellow Loyalists, Thomas Hooper, sailed to Shelburne in William's ship to transport refugees to the Island. Among these refugees who became neighbours were the Wrights, the Strangs and the Sillikers.

William farmed his first 350 acres. The lumber he and his family milled, was transported on his ship and sold to new settlers. In addition to transporting refugees and freighting lumber to market, William used his ship to bring merchandise to his house. This enabled him to establish a store and he became the first merchant in Bedeque. In 1785, William was elected to represent the Bedeque area in the Legislature. He chose to sit for only one session of the House of Assembly. He did, however, become an Overseer of Roads from 1789 to 1815 and was "credited with laying out the route of the first road from Bedeque to Charlottetown...now known as the Kinkora-Rose Valley route from Charlottetown to Summerside" (Schurman history, page 26) and he was appointed a Justice of the Peace, which position he held for years.

Elizabeth meanwhile was busy in her home weaving, spinning, knitting and churning butter, in addition to her basic household chores. She also had five children born on the Island in the years 1785-1796, to add to their existing family of four adults and five children. The year that the youngest, John, was born in 1796, their eldest, Peter, was married.

In 1792, William and Elizabeth's log house burned to the ground. William's account book and money were saved, but the store and his papers and nearly all their possessions were lost. He had rescued the money which was to pay for his land from the burning house. The agreement for the purchase of his 350 acres had been £50 in ten years, but the agreement papers of sale were burned. The proprietor's agent realizing William had lost the papers, denied the arrangement, forcing William to lease the much improved land at eight pence sterling per acre per year. When the land reform measures came into being fifty years later, William's grandchildren obtained clear title to their land.

The log house was replaced with a sizeable frame house. It was built north east of the first house, but close to the river and wharf.

Since the money saved was not needed for the purchase of their land, in 1793 William used it to purchase a four year old two-masted schooner of twenty-three and one-half tons, named Mary. With this ship he began trading with New Brunswick and occasionally Nova Scotia. In 1796, he and William Warren of Tryon became partners in the shipping trade. In 1799, the Mary was lost at sea. Benjamin, the nineteen-year-old son of William and Elizabeth, went down with the ship.

William turned to ship building, using his own lumber and stock from his store, to recover his financial loss. The first ship Lovely was finished in 1801, the William in 1803 and the Sally in 1806.

In 1808, William bought six thousand five hundred acres of land in the northern half of Lot 25, for eight hundred pounds. It was about two and one half miles from his farm. The Wilmot River ran through the property. It was not long before William had a saw mill erected and operating, and the lumber was shipped to Nova Scotia and Great Britain. In this business he employed six to eight persons. This saw mill proved to be more profitable than his store.

William and Elizabeth built a third house upstream from the mill in 1809-1810 and gave Peter and his family the larger home. For the remainder of William's life they lived in their third house, which was closer to the saw mill and consumed the most of his time. He also supervised the operation of his farm and store. Most of their children were living near them in the Bedeque area with the exception of Elizabeth, who lived in Charlottetown, and Mary, the daughter, who was left in New Rochelle with relatives, was never to see her father again.

William's life had not been an easy one, but it had certainly been full. When he died at age 76, the Prince Edward Island Gazette for Wednesday, September 23, 1819, had a suitable obituary for this resourceful man.

> "DIED. On the 14th inst, at his House in Bedeque WILLIAM SCHUREMAN, Esq. an old and respectable magistrate for Prince County. He was one of the oldest Loyalist Inhabitants of that settlement. His public duty as a member of the Assembly and as a Magistrate were ever of a piece with his other conduct, marked with strong discernment and vigorous activity of mind, which were always evinced in his purity of intention and sound judgement. As a husband and parent he was no less conspicuous. His numerous family, whom he lived to see flourishing around him, with his numerous and attached neighbours must ever retain a truly affectionate and grateful remembrance of the virtues of a good father and a staunch undeviating friend." (Schurman history, page 35).

After William's death, Elizabeth lived with some of her children. She passed away, according to the obituary column in the Islander for Friday, February 17, 1843, "At Bedeque, Mrs. Schurman, relict of the late Wm. Schurman, age 90 years" (Schurman history page 38).

"Now nearly two hundred years later, there is nothing to show that either house existed, though the land, the trees, the crops on the red soil are much the same as when William walked over these fields and felt his land beneath his boots, the breeze from the bay on his face. Across the mouth of the Dunk and less than a mile away is the old cemetery in which he and

Elizabeth are buried. Her grave is not marked. His has a handsome slab of dark red sandstone, on which his executors had this epitaph inscribed:

In this place
are interred the remains

WILLIAM SCHURMAN:

Undeviating
In honest and sincerity.
Faithful as a Magistrate
Affectionate as a Husband and Father
Kind as a friend
through life.
He exchanged it for eternity
on the 15th day of Sept. 1819
Aged 76 years."

(Schurman history page 60).

1782 Bradt's company headed toward the Ohio River to catch up with Caldwell's company, but in August with forty Rangers and 250 Indians turned toward Wheeling. On September 11th they attacked Fort Henry at Wheeling, but gave up after three days. They divided into smaller groups, laid waste the nearby areas and withdrew across the Ohio, probably proceeding to Niagara for winter quarters. No further reference has been noted for Bradt.

We next find Jacob mentioned in the papers of Sir Frederick Haldimand, K.C.B., who was governor-in-chief of Canada after Sir Guy Carleton. In a return dated: Niagara, November 30, 1783, under Captain Bradt's company we find Corporal Jacob Buskark, Gertrude, Catherine, Jacob and Mary.[4] In a paper dated; Quebec, September 11, 1784 in a list of Loyalist families wishing to emigrate to Cape Breton were included Jacob and sergeant Richard Lorway[5]. Another paper: Sydney, November 30, 1785, Richard and Jacob were drawing government rations.[6] The paper of 1783 gave the final mention of Gertrude and the three children. For years their whereabouts remained a mystery, but finally one theory has been proved. In 1783 Gertrude wanted to return to her homeland, after she had spent a hard winter at Niagara with the prospect of a hard future in the frontier on the west side of the Niagara River where most of the Rangers were settling. She was determined to return home. Jacob, on the other hand, could not go back to New York under pain of death. So they separated, Gertrude and the children went back to the homeland, and Jacob became an exile.

In Cape Breton, Lorway and Jacob met James Townsend, who had been at the capture of Fortress Louisbourg in 1758, and at the capture of Quebec in 1759. Townsend was later given a grant in Louisbourg. There were several daughters in the Townsend family and eventually Richard Lorway married Mary, while Jacob took Susannah as his second wife sometime before 1788. They had moved to the island of Saint John by 1789. They lived near New Glasgow or Rustico while Jacob waited for the grant of land that he had been promised. He may have been engaged in the fishing industry, and leased land where he lived. To Jacob and Susannah nine children were born. Susannah probably died before 1833, as in that year Jacob appeared before the Assembly in Charlottetown, again asking for a grant.[2] He was now eighty-four years old and living with his son on leased land. He did not get the grant although he lived to be 108, according to his grandson.[7]

This is the last official reference that we have of Jacob Van Buskirk. It is believed that he and Susannah are buried in New Glasgow Cemetery, Prince Edward Island but the grave is unmarked.

The Veterans Affairs building in Ottawa had a quotation from Ecclesiastes 44:7, that does not seem to cover such as Jacob, until one reads the ninth verse.

> 7 "All these are honoured in their generations and were the glory of their times.
> 8 There are some of them who have left a name, so that men declare their praise.
> 9 AND THERE ARE SOME WHO HAVE NO MEMORIAL WHO HAVE PERISHED AS THOUGH THEY HAD NOT BEEN BORN and so have their children after them."

A quotation from Claude H. Van Tyne is fitting:[8]

> "The cause of the Loyalists failed, but their stand was just and natural. They were the prosperous and contented men, the men without a grievance. Men do not rebel to rid themselves of prosperity. Prosperous men seek to conserve prosperity. The Loyalist obeyed his nature as truly as the Patriot, but, as events proved, chose the ill-fated cause, and, when the struggle ended, his prosperity had fled, and he was an outcast, and an exile."

The children of Jacob Van Buskirk and Gertrude Schram included:

I Catherine Van Buskirk (1770-1845)

Catherine, the eldest daughter, was born in 1770 in old Albany County, New York now called Greene County, probably in or near Loonenburg, now Athens, on the Hudson River. Catherine was fourteen when she said goodbye to her father at Niagara, and with her mother, sister and brother headed back through the forests toward their homeland in the Hudson Valley. We do not know the route that was followed; it may have been down Lake Ontario to Oswego, then overland to the Mohawk Valley, and along the Valley to Albany, then down the Hudson to Athens, a distance of perhaps 350 miles. Boats and canoes may have been used some of the time, but much of the distance must have been travelled on foot. Eventually Catherine married Gerritt G. Van Hoesen, junior, (1769-1859), son of Gerritt Van Hoesen and Elizabeth. The Van Hoesens became pioneers in the Preble, New York, area between 1800 and 1810. Catherine and Gerritt were both buried there. She died in 1845, and Gerritt in 1859. To them five children were born: Gerritt, Jacob, Elizabeth, Keturah and John.

Catherine's mother, Gertraud, was a sponsor at the christening of her grandson, Jacob Van Hoesen, on February 9, 1794.

It is noted that Catherine called her first son after her father. Catherine and Gerritt Van Hoesen, junior, had the following children:

A. Jacob was born on December 15, 1794. He married Mary Knoll, who was born in 1795. They had ten children, but no further details are known, Jacob died in 1857 and Mary in 1860.

B. Gerritt was born in 1795, although his birthplace is undetermined. On May 1, 1811 at Tully, New York, he married Lana Van Buskirk. She was born in 1792 to Benjamin Van Buskirk of Tully and Maria Hardwick. It is believed that twelve children were born to Gerritt and Lana. Gerritt died in 1863 and Lana lived until 1865. At present no further details are known.
C. Elizabeth was born in 1796. There are no further details.
D. Keturah was married to Egra Galusha, (1799-1858). There is no further information at present.
E. John was born in 1798. He married Mary Park, but there is no other information.

II Jacob Van Buskirk (1774-1825)

Jacob, junior was born on December 25, 1774 in Albany County, New York probably at Loonenburg. Jacob was a mere ten years of age when he was separated from his father at Niagara in 1784. He, with sisters Catherine and Mary, travelled with their mother back to the Hudson Valley which was their home area. Possibly they travelled over the same trails that they had journeyed on when they went to Niagara with their father a year or two previously. No doubt, Jacob wished, many times, that he had his

John Strickland, Master Mariner, moved to Bedeque and in March, 1797 bought 150 acres from Jonathan Palmer, a farmer, in Lot 26. The sum of twenty Pounds was paid for the tract of land with all houses, woods and marshes. In the 1798 census, John Strickland, Lot 26, Bedeque had six in his household.

In 1789 John Strickland was listed as the master of the schooner, Elizabeth which was thirty-seven tons. No biographical sketch was submitted on John Strickland.

JOHN VANIDERSTINE

It is said that the VanIderstine family came from Holland. John VanIderstine, his wife and several brothers emigrated to America, settling at New York, New Jersey and in Pennsylvania. During the War of Independence, the VanIderstines who favoured the English cause moved to Upper Canada and to the Island of Saint John. Loyalist John (c. 1753-1839) chose to settle on the latter and received a grant of three hundred and forty acres on the Vernon River in Lot 50 during the period between 1784 and 1786. His warrant of survey was dated October 10, 1785.

John VanIderstine was a successful farmer. His will, dated November 22, 1834, recorded gardens, orchards, and buildings, cattle, sheep, saws and tools. Among the household furnishings mentioned were feather beds, pillows and blankets the work of his thrifty wife and daughter. No doubt they were responsible for the spinning and weaving and for the care of the geese which provided feathers for the pillows and beds, and roast goose for the table.

In the will John, junior, was named as oldest son, Peter as youngest. The son, drowned previously in Vernon River, is believed to have been Isaac under sixteen in the 1798 census when John VanNiderstine (sic) was head of a household of five living on Lot 50. John's death occurred at Vernon River in 1839. His will was probated on November 13, 1839.

John, junior, Peter, Catherine, called Kitty, Isaac and a second daughter are the recorded children of John VanIderstine and his wife whose name is unknown:

I John VanIderstine (c. 1776-?)

John, junior, was born c. 1776 in the British Colonies. He married Nancy Fraser who was born in 1779 in Scotland and paid her own fare to Prince Edward Island. The family were Methodists (Bible Christians) and lived at Vernon River. John was a farmer with a family of at least eight children, four sons and four daughters:

A. George married Esther Carr. They, too, were Methodists, and farmed ninety-five acres at Vernon River, Lot 50. They had a family of four sons and one daughter.
B. Andrew was born in 1810 and died in 1876, according to the VanIderstine history. The Hayden history gives his dates as 1812-1878. He married Mary Hayden, (1821-1903). Andrew was a farmer whose farm comprised one hundred and thirty acres at Vernon River. He and Mary were Bible Christians with a family of four daughters and six sons.
C. Peter was born in 1818 and died in 1884. In 1849 he married Eliza Davey (1822-?) of Charlottetown. Peter was a carpenter and lived on the corner of Euston and Hillsboro Streets. They were Methodists with a family of six daughters and three sons.
D. Alex was married twice. His first wife, Elizabeth Needham, was the youngest daughter of Mr. V. Needham of Bay Fortune. She died in 1853 without issue. In 1856 Alex married Elizabeth Machon of Murray Harbour. They lived in Murray Harbour South where he was a shoemaker. They had a family of four sons and one daughter. Alex died in 1866.
E. Mary was born in 1807. She married Benjamin Sencabaugh. They had four sons and four daughters. (see Sencabaugh history).
F. Margaret did not marry.
G. Ann did not marry.
H. Catherine did not marry.

II Peter VanIderstine (1779-?)

Peter was born c. 1779 in British Colonies. He married Elizabeth Nicholson, who had been left an orphan in Skye. Her relative, Donald Nicholson, and his wife brought her to Prince Edward Island in 1805 at the age of sixteen. Donald Nicholson was a shipping agent for Lord Selkirk. Peter and Elizabeth were Methodists (Bible Christians). The church and cemetery at Vernon River were established on their land. A new church was erected in 1872. They had ten children, eight sons and two daughters:

A. John was born in 1811 and died in 1890. He married Mary Furness, (1812-1904), who was born in England. John tilled his one hundred acres on the south side of Vernon River on Lot 50. This Bible Christian family had three daughters and eight sons. One son was drowned in the English Channel.
B. Donald was born in 1813. He was named after Donald Nicholson, his mother's benefactor. He married Catherine Smith, (1828-1889). They, like his brother John, farmed on the south side of Vernon River and were Bible Christians. Nine sons and three daughters were born to Donald and Catherine VanIderstine.
C. Peter was born in 1815, and moved to Ontario. No further record.
D. Charles was born in 1817 and moved to Ontario. No further record.
E. Margaret was born in 1819 and died in 1890. She married, at Vernon River, Neil MacLeod, (1811-1888), a Scottish immigrant who arrived from the Isle of Skye in 1829. They were both buried in Vernon River Cemetery. They had a family of five daughters and three sons.
F. Ebenezer was born in 1822. In 1847 he married Martha Cassidy (1826-?). The ceremony was performed in St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, New Brunswick. They had four daughters and eight sons. This family changed the spelling to Vanadestine.
G. Catherine was born in 1824 and died in 1901. She married John Furness, (1819-1892). The Furness family were Methodists and were buried in Vernon River Cemetery. Their children included seven daughters and four sons.
H. Alexander was born in 1827 and died in Australia. No further record.
I. David was born in 1829 and died in Australia. No further record.
J. James who was born in 1834 did not marry.

JACOB VAN BUSKIRK

JACOB VAN BUSKIRK, the progenitor of all Van Buskirks who originated on Prince Edward Island, was born in Albany County, New York, near Loonenburg on June 30, 1749. He was a son of Andries Thomasen Van Buskirk, (1698-1761), and Annetje Vervey, daughter of Jan Cornelius Vervey and Catharina Ackerman. About 1769 Jacob married Gertrude Schram who was born in 1753, and was the daughter of William Schram of Loonenburg. Three children were born to him and Gertrude: Catherine, Jacob and Mary.

Jacob is described as being handsome, tall, blue-eyed and a crack shot.[1] He owned 500 acres of land which he valued at 500 pounds Sterling.[2] In the ordinary turn of events he would have lived out his days in the vicinity a peaceful citizen, as his ancestors had lived for three generations under the rule of Holland and England.

The Revolution intervened and after the Declaration of Independence in 1776, those who refused to take an oath of allegiance to Congress were considered traitors. Jacob was loyal to his King and refused; he was imprisoned for a month and four days as a consequence.[2] While in prison he was a witness to an atrocity, when a Loyalist[1] wife seeking the release of her husband was promised it, but he was hanged first and the body given to her when she next appeared. On his release Jacob went over to the King's forces, rowing to a[1] warship in the river (probably the Hudson) while the ship's marines held their muskets trained on him. From a quiet subject of the governing power, he became an enthusiastic Loyalist, and as a result he became an exile, giving up his property, his home, his family, and his country for the cause. He may have served with other regiments at first, but later joined Butler's Rangers. It is claimed that he was a liaison runner.[3]

In 1777 Major John Butler was fifty-six when he received authority from Sir Guy Carleton to form a Corps of Rangers. Butler had served in the British Army for twenty-nine years, and he had been an officer after 1755. The Corps was to begin with eight companies, each with a captain, one lieutenant, three sergeants, three corporals, fifty privates. There were to be two companies of men speaking the Indian languages, and who were well acquainted with the Indian customs; they were to receive four shillings per day. Other companies were to be well acquainted with the woods, and would receive two shillings per day. All were to clothe and arm themselves. This appears to have been high pay, for it was estimated that eight companies of Rangers cost as much as twenty companies of regular infantry. By December the first company was ready. The uniform was a dark green coat faced with scarlet, a waistcoat of green cloth, buckskin leggings which extended from ankle to waist, a cap of black leather with a frontal plate, and a crossed belt of buff leather with brass plate.

Eventually there were ten companies of Butler's Rangers and their commanders were: Major Butler, and Captains: Caldwell, McDonnell (former aide-de-camp to Bonnie Prince Charlie), Ten Broeck, Hare, Frey, McKinon, Bradt, Dames, and Ginevy.

For the years 1777-1783 we have no certain record of Jacob's activities, no diaries, no papers; one can only suppose that in the activities of the Rangers he had a continuous part. If he was a liaison runner for some of the time, there are only a few references to the dangerous errands they ran, slipping through the forests alone, or in twos; their duty was to deliver the letters entrusted to them while they had to avoid contact with the enemy at all costs. Having delivered the dispatch to a company in battle, the runner might have to stay and fight his way out with the others before proceeding on his return. Colonel Butler had a mysterious and efficient system of scouts, runners, spies, and informers. It is said that he was informed at all times about the foe's activities.

In 1779 four men were discovered passing through the mountains, two were captured and found to be carrying dispatches from the New York City area for Butler at Niagara. They were accused as spies by the rebels and probably hanged. One wonders if Jacob was one of the two who escaped. In June of 1779 Colonel Butler sent a runner with a letter to Sir Henry Clinton in New York. Butler kept both Sir Henry, and General Haldimand, in Quebec, informed as to the movement of the rebels. In August 1779 it was reported that a runner, from Sir Henry Clinton to Colonel Butler with dispatches, was captured on his return and at once executed. Runners appeared to go regularly between New York, Quebec City, and Niagara, but no further mention has been noted.

Since Jacob was in Captain Andrew Bradt's company in November 1783, we may suppose that he was there from its formation. In September 1781 the tenth company was completed, so we might suppose that it was Bradt's, and that Jacob participated in its activities from then on. In July tall woodsman father with them during the many dark and fearsome nights on the journey home.

Jacob was married on April 9, 1797 to Annetje Van Hoesen at Coxsackie, New York about six miles up the Hudson River from Loonenburg. It is not known if Annetje was a sister of Gerritt who married Jacob's sister Catherine. The date is not known when they moved but Jacob died at Penn Yan, Yates County, New York in 1825. Again it is noted, that he, too, called his son after his father Jacob. Children of Jacob and Annetje included:

A. Jacob who was born in 1801. He was married to Adeline Wilson, (1804-1880), in 1823. They lived in Seneca County, Ohio. Jacob died in 1837. Both are buried in Tiffin, Ohio. They had seven children. Five are buried with the parents in Greenlawn Cemetery, Tiffin, Ohio. One infant in Pennsylvania, and one infant daughter is buried in Lima, Ohio. Apparently the parents lived in these areas before settling in Tiffin.
B. Jane was born in 1803, but there is no additional information at hand.

III Mary Van Buskirk (1778-?)
Mary, the youngest child, was born in 1778, probably at Loonenburg, New York, as were the others. It is possible that Mary may not have seen her father until 1783 when they all arrived at Niagara. She was then only five years old and the next spring or summer she was parted from him forever. Mary married John C. Spoor. Mary and John had a son born on April 8, 1798 and baptized in 1799, who was named Jacob. Sponsors were her brother, Jacob Van Buskirk, and his wife, Annetje. Thus Mary, like her brother and sister, called her son after her father, Jacob. (N.Y. Genealogical and Biographical Record, Vol. 91, p. 148).

Nine children were born to Jacob Van Buskirk, Loyalist, and Susannah Townsend. These were:

I James Van Buskirk (1789-1858)
James, the eldest son of this family, was born on July 15, 1789. He later moved to Freetown, where he farmed. On October 2, 1815 he married Mary (Polly) Strang who was born on May 13, 1794. She was the daughter of Jesse Strang and Sarah Wright, both of Westchester County, New York. James died on September 27, 1858 and Mary on November 6, 1866. They are buried in Central Bedeque Baptist Cemetery. James' will was proved on October 13, 1858. James and Mary had nine children:

A. Sarah was born on September 15, 1819 at Freetown. On March 16, 1837 she married John Lewis who was born in 1807, at Carmarthenshire, Wales. Eleven children were born to them, five sons and six daughters. Sarah died on September 9, 1892 and John died in 1889.
B. Jesse was born on April 15, 1821. On April 10, 1852 he married Mary Rix, (1827-1899). They had eight children. Jesse died on July 13, 1892.
C. Susannah was born on June 5, 1824. On March 22, 1843 she married John S. Strang. She died on March 25, 1859 and is buried in Central Bedeque Baptist Cemetery.
D. Mary Annie was born on November 7, 1826. On January 15, 1852 she married Henry Baker. They had nine children.
E. Jacob was born on November 22, 1828. On December 30, 1852 he married Margaret Baker, (1824-1880), a daughter of Joseph Baker and Kitty Callbeck. They had two sons and two daughters. They had moved from Freetown to Moncton, New Brunswick earlier. On November 14, 1882 Jacob was married to Marguerite Florence Rogers. She died in 1897, and Jacob died in August, 1907.
F. Stephen was born on March 2, 1831. On February 9, 1859 he married Matilda Ann Maxfield, (1839-1898). They moved to the vicinity of Fortune Cove, where they farmed. Eight children were born to them. Stephen died on May 20, 1903.

G. Jane was born on July 13, 1833. On November 13, 1855 she married Isaac Wall who was born c. 1830. He was the youngest son of Redmond Wall, who was a native of Ireland. Jane and Isaac moved to New Brunswick in the 1860's and by 1871 were living in Truro, Nova Scotia. Another move brought them to Pictou Landing, Nova Scotia by 1881. They had nine children.
H. Almira Corinda was born on July 17, 1835. She married Samuel Ebenezer Lidstone, (1836-1915). He too, was from Freetown. They later moved to Cape Wolfe, where she assisted her husband in the establishment of the first Baptist witness in that location. She was a charter member of the Ladies Aid. They had six daughters and five sons. Almira died on February 26, 1889.
I. James Alvin, the youngest child, was born on January 15, 1841. He was married to Elizabeth Bronson Kinley. They had two children. It is believed that they lived at Cape Wolfe. He was drowned while attempting to cross the harbour on May 1, 1871 in his thirtieth year.

II Susannah Van Buskirk (c. 1788-?)
Susannah was born c. 1788. There is very little information on this family.

III John Van Buskirk (c. 1787-?)
John Van Buskirk was born c. 1787.

IV Mary Van Buskirk (c. 1785-?)
Mary was born c. 1785, and on December 13, 1807 she married Lawrence Van Buskirk who may have been from Nova Scotia.

V Jemima Van Buskirk (1801-?)
Jemima was born in 1801. There is a legend that she or Susannah was married to a Mr. Park or a Mr. Murphy, but no documentation has been found.

VI Abraham Van Buskirk (1795-?)
Abraham, the third son, was born on August 15, 1795 at New Glasgow. On October 2, 1830 he married Martha Nisbet, a daughter of George Nisbet and Martha Hart of Scotland, who came to Prince Edward Island in 1820. Abraham moved to North Rustico, where in 1841 he is listed as a shipbuilder. He was also a constable in 1843. Apparently he leased shoreland at Doyle's Cove on land later owned by Lee Warren. It is claimed that nine children were born to them, but only eight have been noted. The dates of death for Abraham and Martha are not known, nor is their burial location certain. It is probably New Glasgow Cemetery.

Children of Abraham Van Buskirk and Martha Nisbet:

A. Jonathan Hayden was born on September 23, 1854, at New Glasgow. He was married to Janet Elizabeth Cassman of Nova Scotia. They had three children. Jonathan lived in Charlottetown, and was a cooper by trade. He died on April 21, 1944, and is buried in the People's Cemetery, Charlottetown.
B. Martha's date and place of birth are not known. She was married to a Mr. Chase. He served in the United States Civil War, and died a prisoner in the Confederate Libby prison at Richmond, Virginia. It is not known if he was a Canadian or an American. They had one daughter. At the time of Martha's death, previous to 1904, she had only one sister mentioned as living, Mrs. Daniel Daly; unfortunately the first name is not given. It is possible that Daly was her second marriage, as the other marriages seem accounted for and do not include a Daly. Martha is buried in the People's Cemetery, Charlottetown.
C. Susannah was married on August 27, 1861, to Silas Johnson of Mayfield. No further details are known.
D. Sophia was married on September 5, 1861, to Cyrus M. Johnson, perhaps a brother of Silas. No further information is available at this time.

Hi Kay

Thanks for picking up that error for me. On checking my notes, you are correct.

I emigrated from South Africa and I too am waiting for my Mum (Maureen Bawden) to give me info on Sarah Jane Bosanko (b. 1873). She is my G Grandmother who married George Bawden. I need a start on my Bawden tree.

I'm fairly certain SJ died in Sth Africa. I can barely remember her as a cranky old devil who once chased me around the house as a child threatening all sorts of violence with a knife-sharpening strap! She was in her 90's!

Regarding Richard's parents, I found both records, ie. William & Florence Haluna AND John & Christian (Unknown). This is in my "further research rqd" file. I found John & Florence Haluna in a Gencircles file posted by "peregrin". I think peregrin could be Fayth Harrison. I think I'll send her an email regarding that one and ask her to copy you in on her reply.

Kay, I'm thinking of setting up a message board/forum page on the web. I think this will be a good way for everyone to communicate their findings, seek info and create discussion. I am a member of a few such boards and they are fantastic as a tool to share info. I have set up one before, but it's very slow and I'm thinking of shutting it down (not enough members!) The sort of thing is like this one: www.blahblah.iinet.net.au It won't take much more to have up and running as I've done all the hard work with BlahBlah and I have plenty of server space. What do you think?

I've attached that GED file!

Hi Bruce,

Nice to hear from you!
Yes, I would love a gedcom (I use Legacy not FTM). However I see you have my Henry (b 1812) as married to Elizabeth. This is incorrect. He married Eleanor Watters 25 Dec 1834 in Crowan, CON.

You certainly have a few I do not have, as I do not have several of the family extensions such as Edward's line.

My JOLLY line came via Sth Africa so have a few untapped areas there as well.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Hi Kay

"Your" Richard (b. 1714) would have been 15 yrs 10 mths at his christening and marriage to Philippa Goldsworthy, not impossible I guess, given that Phillipa Gundry was born 6mths later. Haha:)

Notice also the different spelling of Phillipa and Philippa Gold(s)worthy.

I also found this:-

About FamilySearch Pedigree Resource File:
The Pedigree Resource File is a new lineage linked database of records available on compact disc containing family history records submitted by individuals through FamilySearch Internet Genealogy Service. Family information is organized in family groups and pedigrees and includes submitted notes and sources. Many charts and reports can be printed from this data. Each disc contains about 1.1 million names. With the publication of every five discs, a master index for those discs will be published and packaged with that set of discs. With the publication of every 25 discs, a master index for those discs will also be published and packaged with that volume of discs. Discs may be purchased as sets or volumes.

Fayth-

First of all, it is a pleasure to meet you. I have only been involved with genealogical research for a little over a year now, but have found it be both exciting and extremely rewarding. The insight it has provided into who we are and where we come from has been simply extraordinary.

Though my site is far from complete (actually what you have seen is a first draft), please feel free to link to it. If any of the links change, I will be sure to let you know.

Also, I would like to ask the same favor in return. In the future, as I develop a links page, do you mind if I share your webpage with visitors?

Also, if you are looking for any more information on your branch of Gundry's, please let me know. I do have a fair accumulation of data on the Gundry surname and may be able to research it for you. (Off the top of my head I remember seeing the marriage you spoke of in your e-mail.)

Regards,

Dan Gundry
